We have an exciting opportunity for 2 highly motivated and innovative Level 2 Teaching Assistants to join our team as part of Pendle Education Trust. The successful applicants will be based at Casterton Primary Academy. One will be a permanent post and the other will initially be on a fixed term contract subject to the budget in the future.

Pendle Education Trust is sponsored by Nelson and Colne College, an outstanding local education provider; this is a fantastic opportunity for an enthusiastic and determined Teaching Assistant to join an establishment where they can have a real impact on student aspirations and success.

Supporting and supervising children from all abilities, the ideal candidates will be dynamic practitioners who promote and uphold the same high expectations as the academy and its students. With a focus on sharing good practice, they will be committed to their own continuous professional development, and will engage enthusiastically with our quality processes to ensure that our students receive an outstanding experience.

The Trust offers unparalleled staff benefits, including fantastic professional development opportunities. Championing success and building student confidence, these posts offer a genuine opportunity for someone with enthusiasm to inspire children and make a real difference.
